2021 Spring Commencement

Chancellor's Message

Congratulations Graduates! You did it!

Commencement is a time to celebrate the completion of your degrees, but even more, it is a time to celebrate the beginning of a new chapter in each of your lives. You have overcome the challenges of a pandemic to reach this special day, and I can assure you that we all share deep pride in you reaching graduation in spite of all the changes around us.

Each of you has spent years working toward your degree and adapting to unique learning modalities in your final semesters, but you now have your credentials in hand. As we all emerge from the coronavirus crisis into a new world, your communities and ‘ohana will need the skills and knowledge you have acquired. And even though you and your families may miss the traditional commencement event itself, I know each and every one of you will have memories of UH Hilo that you will carry with you into your personal and professional lives.

I join your ‘ohana, friends, mentors, and faculty, and members of our island community, in celebrating this day with you. You are part of a historic class as we celebrate the 50th anniversary of bachelor's degrees for UH Hilo! As did those graduates before you, I know each of you will make a big difference in helping your communities move forward, thus doing your part to help change the world for the better.

I wish each of you happiness and success in all you do.

Aloha,

Keynote Address

Lorna H. Tsutsumi is a professor of entomology at the University of Hawai'i at Hilo, specializing in honey bees in Hawai'i. She developed and runs the UH Hilo apiary and bee garden, teaches about bees and beekeeping, and produces practical knowledge and scientific literature about honey bees that benefit local beekeepers.

In 2010, Professor Tsutsumi developed a bee-friendly educational garden at the UH Hilo Farm Laboratory located in Pana'ewa. The sustainable garden, named Mapuhonehone, referring to the wafting fragrance of honey, together with an adjacent apiary give students hands-on experience in beekeeping. In 2012, Professor Tsutsumi developed the UH Hilo Certificate in Beekeeping program, which trains students in advanced beekeeping skills.

In addition to her research and teaching on beekeeping, Professor Tsutsumi also has developed and marketed value-added bee products made from the honey and wax extracted by beekeeping students from the bee hives at the farm. Monies generated from the sales of these products help support UH students.

In 2011, Professor Tsutsumi teamed up with Chef Alan Wong to launch the Adopt-a-Behive with Alan Wong program to raise awareness of the critical plight of honey bees and to promote solutions to sustaining the local honey bee industry. Members of the public can adopt a beehive at the UH Hilo Farm Lab to support research and development of healthy beehive practices in Hawai'i. In 2012, the program was recognized by the Hawai'i State Senate for its local and global contributions to the understanding of the importance of honey bees.

Professor Tsutsumi was awarded the 1988 Board of Regents' Medal for Excellence in Teaching, the 2008 Distinguished Service Award for Improving Student Life, the 2010 Chancellor's Pūlama 'Ike Award recognizing significant contributions to the mission of UH Hilo, and the 2012 Koichi and Taniyo Taniguchi Award for Excellence and Innovation.

Student Addresses

Eric Tejada is a Business Administration major in the College of Business & Economics. He has made the College of Business & Economics (CoBE) Dean's list in multiple semesters. Tejada also is the recipient of several scholarships, including the CoBE Scholarship. Besides studying, Tejada fills his time with his on-campus job with the UH Hilo First Year Experience as a Student Office Manager. He is also a part of Lambda Psi Delta Sigma Pi professional business fraternity, where he was Vice President of Community Service for the year of 2020. As an inspiring business professional, Tejada will continue to explore the financial industry with HFS Federal Credit Union. In the future, he would like to pursue a Master of Arts in Teaching at UH Hilo, and maybe become a business teacher at a high school one day.

Kiaria Zoi Nakamura is a lifelong Buddhist with a passion for writing and a love for the stage. Between balancing four-part time jobs and being a full-time student, she spends her free time planning future travel plans, singing karaoke with friends, and binge watching RuPaul's Drag Race. She is graduating with a degree in English, a minor in Performing Arts, and two certificates in Educational Studies and Creative Writing. Some of her proudest moments at UH Hilo include receiving the Presidential Award, choreographing for the Performing Arts Center's Hawaiian Nutcracker, and presenting at the 2021 Richard Macksey National Undergraduate Humanities Research Symposium. In the future, she plans to go into higher education, but until then, she intends to sleep.

Nina Sabahi is graduating with a Bachelor of Arts in Psychology and a Bachelor of Science in Biology. She is an active member of the Student Arts Association, having served as Treasurer, Vice President, and President. She is passionate about communication and uses her skills to volunteer for the Ku'ikahi Mediation Center as a mediator, and at the Crisis Text Line as a crisis counselor. She intends to go to graduate school to ultimately practice psychiatry one day.

Pulelo Ha'aheo

*Words by Kauanoë Kamanā, Kalena Silva, William H. Wilson
Music by Haunani Bernardino*

Pulelo ha'aheo ke ahi a nā lehua a'o Hilo
Hilo o ka mālamalama, lamakū o nei ao
Ka ua Kanilehua ka'u e pūlama mau ai
Hilo i ka uluwehiwehi, wehi kau i ka wēkiu

Hui:

E kū a'e e Hilo, lei i ka na'auao
Ho'okahi ka umauma, ho'okahi pu'uwai.

English Translation by Kauanoë Kamanā, Kalena Silva, Kenith Simmons, William H. Wilson

Lehua blossom flames leap high above Hilo,
Hilo, proud bearer of the torch of wisdom, light for all to share.
I shall always cherish the Kanilehua rain;
Hilo, lush with vegetation, a lei reaching to the highest peaks.

Chorus:

Rise up, O Hilo, wear proudly the mantle of enlightenment;
Let us stand united in purpose, mind and heart.
